Welcome To

Welcome to another exciting year at Vacaville High School, where Lauren Gonzales and Leah Hutting anxiously await instruction from Mr. Williams. Well, while Lauren and Leah may not appreciate this academic challenge, Vaca High students do appreciate the time and effort put in by their teachers. Vaca High students are a great mixture of being serious and being casual, responsibility and fun.

Waving enthusuastically, Junior, Katilyn Dierkes is happy that the long school day has finally come to an end. (above)

"Who you rootin' for?" This crowd of spirited seniors stand for Mr. Green at a rally. (right)

Junior Eric Farley shows just how excited he is to be a student at Vaca High. His unique fashion sense adds to the diversity at our school. (below)

Yum! Yum! Junior Victora Horton delights herself by eating her extra cheesey pizza. (left)

Mr. Geivett and Mr. Korman work hard to beautify the school. Thanks to them and other hardworking teachers & students the halls were lined with many young, green trees. (above)

With her icy stare, freshmen Geri Phelps intimidates us. (right)

At the school blood drive, Junior Liz Cherry smiles through the pain. Every year the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank receives large deposits from Vaca High. (left)

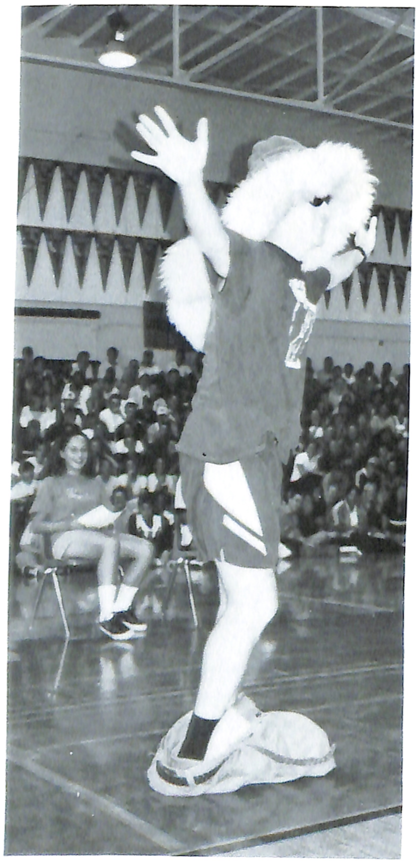
Seniors Shellie Whitley and Wendy Burkhardt exhibit the strong ties of friendship between them. (right)



True Bulldogs will do anything for school spirit, but Mr. Fitz, maybe you should keep your pants on. (above)

In Mr. Ray's room, Junior Geordie Stock ponders the meaning of life, or is there just a fly on the wall? (below)

Junior Stepheney Morales enjoys a chocolate muffin, one of our cafeteria's delicious foods, before school one morning. (below)

Seniors Nick Tatum, Tony Branco and Tim Duncan begin to show the strain caused by the football team's difficult and long practices. (left)

A prime example of student life at Vaca High, displayed by Senior Rebecca Wells and Sophomore Lauren Berry. (below)

"We want you, for Vacaville High School!" exclaims Junior Katie Sacca along with Senior Omari Mitchell. Whether you are an excellent athlete, an enthusiastic school-supporter, have a brilliant mind, participate in clubs, have an after school job, or are just an all around great person, Vaca High is the place for you. Vaca High has an open accepting atmosphere which makes everyone feel like part of the Dog Pound. So, once again, "Who ya rootin' for?"

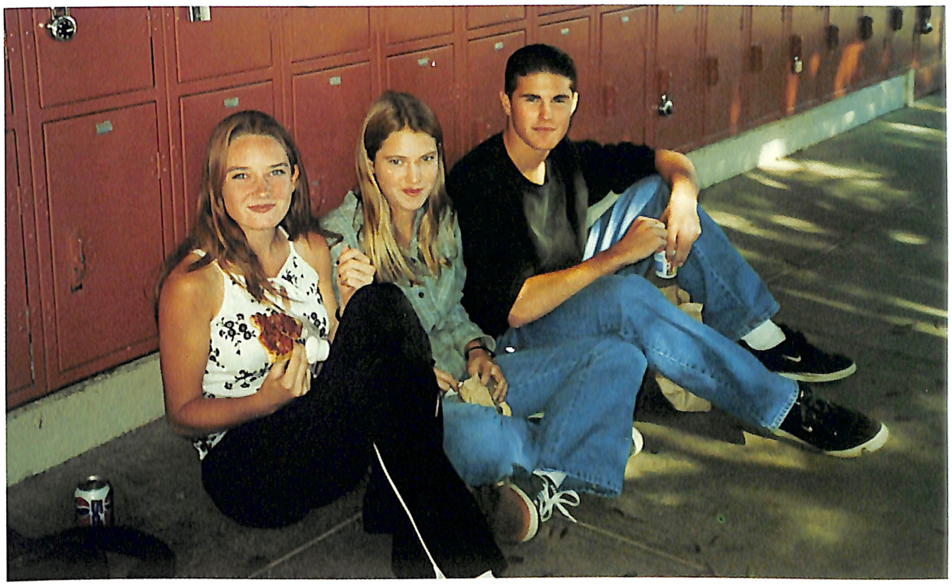
Student Life

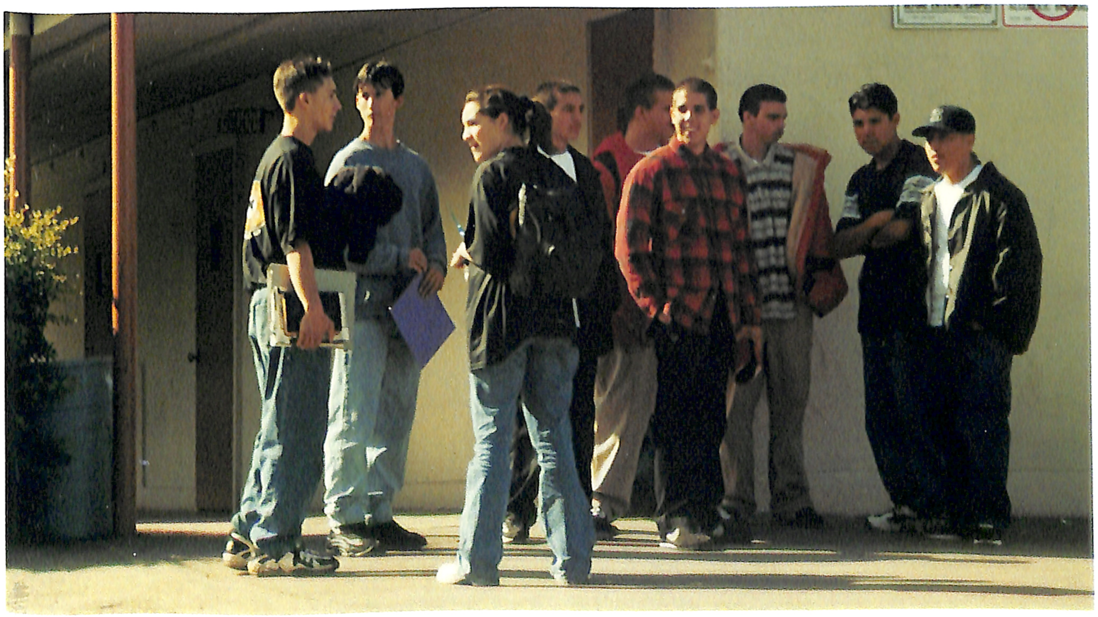
It's a Dogs Life

An activity that every bulldog enjoys is lunch. These three seniors, Sarah Cunningham, Kazuyo Haramaki and Shoko Hisada, know how to have good times in the quad. (above)

Finding a quiet place to eat makes a chaotic day easier to handle for Junior Matt Marchesseault and Sophomores Linda Hannon and Jackie Hammer. (right)

These students can definitely take time off from their studies to be themselves. Most people agree that friends are an incentive to come to school. (below)





.. It's a dog's life... Student

My Buddy and Me

These guys take a load off, and relax under the trees in the quad during lunch.

Sergio Zavala and Marcos Lopez get a jump on the day's work, or catch up on last night's homework before school starts.

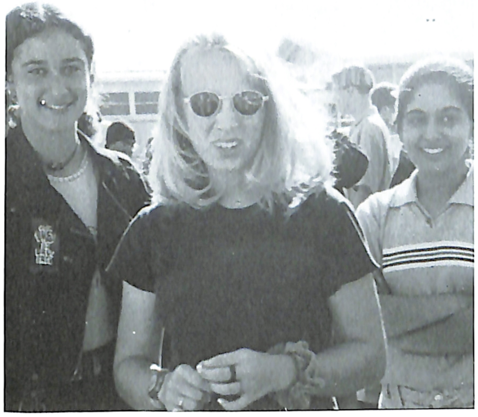
Seniors Nicole Guillory, Jamie Lynd,, Roxanne Dominguez and Erika Gross sit back taking time out of their drill team practice to spend it with each other.

This group of students shows off their double Dutch talent, and remind us of the good old days when recess was the best part of the day.

"Wherever you are it is your own friends who make your world," William James

"Live like you won't die, love like it won't hurt, and dance like nobody's watching,"

Author Unknown

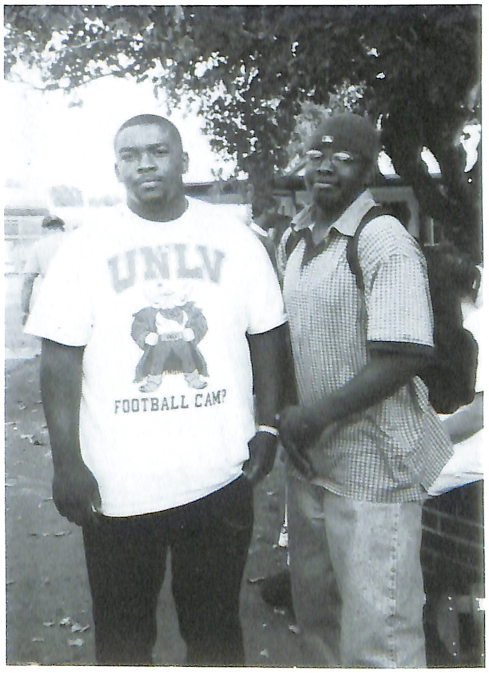


From Contempo to Old Navy, these three girls show us that it's not the color of the collar that makes the friend.

Kyle Wassail and his partner in crime display the mysterious hole put in a classroom window.

David Gerardo holds on to his friend and tries to comfort him as the fire bell blazes on in the background.

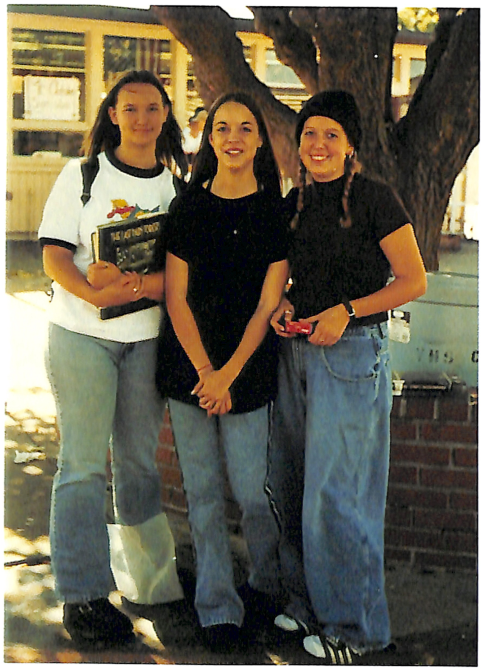
Katie Lewis, Ashley Domingez, Amber Synigal, and Khala Thomas take a quick break in the quad as they try to decide what they will have for lunch today.

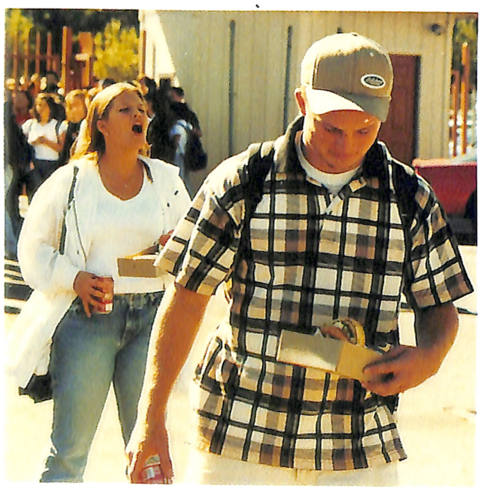


Senior studs Omari Mitchell and Cameron Freeman stand together and wait for the women of their dreams to pass by.

Like true friends Noel Aponte, Lindsey Anderson, and Ileah Lavora supported each other through their second year at Vaca High. (right)

These sophomores chill during lunch in the quad because none of them can drive yet. (below)





"What's in this?" Adam Macrae scrutinized his In and Out burger during homecoming week. They were actually very good.

"I swear we are innocent." These junior guys insist that they have been "perfect angels" all year long.

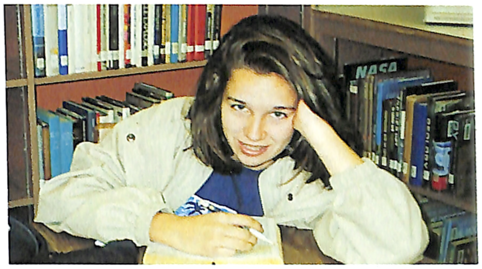
"Treat your friends as you do your pictures and place them in their best light."

Jennie Churchill

"Only choose in marriage a woman whom you would choose as a friend if she were a man." Joseph Joubert

Living across the street from one another, goofy pals Danny Bernadini and Jennifer Zetah have always been there for each other.

Nicole Gonzales was a frequent visitor to the library her junior year. She always needed a little extra time to study for Mrs. Wara's difficult tests. (below)



Aren't they cute little Bulldogs? These sophomores show that true friends let you lean on them when it's needed.

See, it is true, Seniors can be friends to freshmen. Senior Jennifer Schneider proves it as she chats with freshman Robby Watkins. (below)

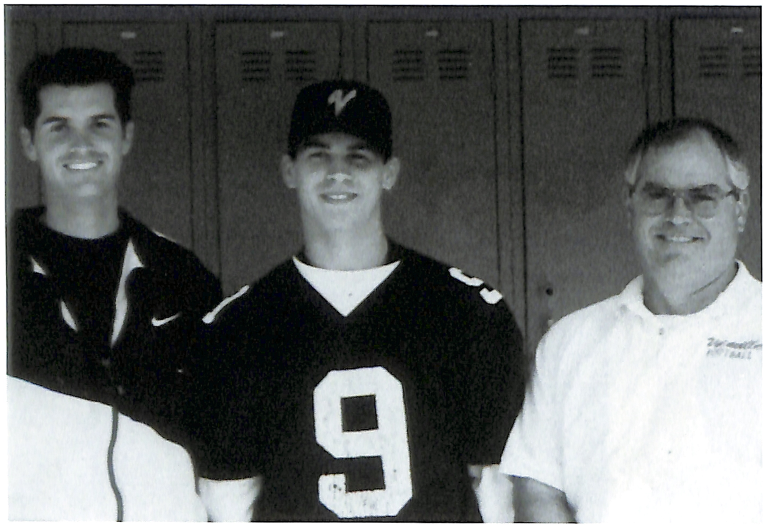
Relatives

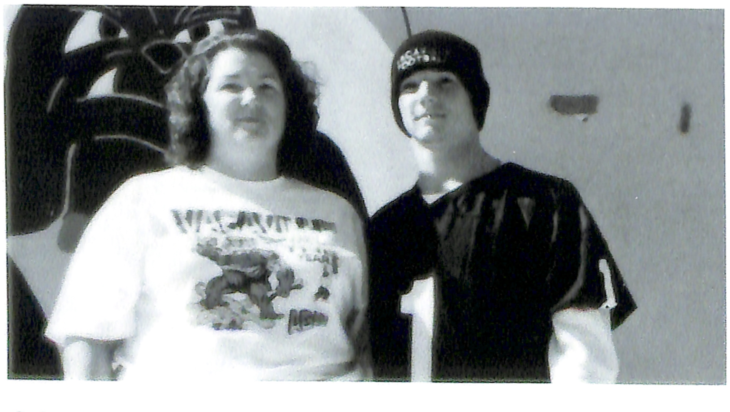


Straight from the math department here is Mr. Boele with his two sons, Mr. J. Boele (also from the math department) and sophomore Rob Boele.

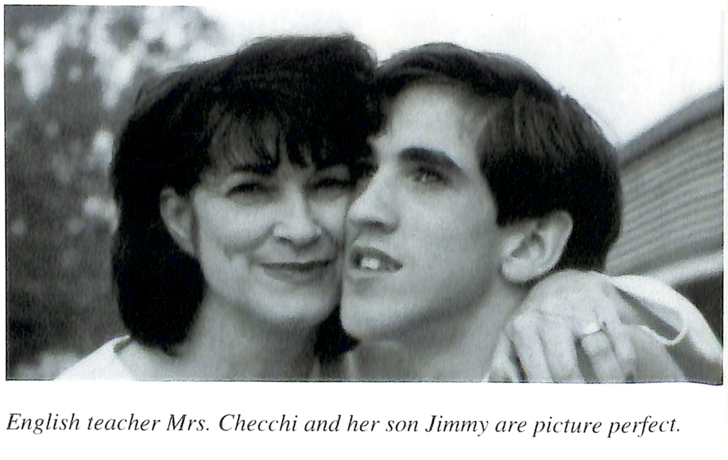
Campus supervisor Mrs. Rogers and her son Josh Rogers.

Art teacher Mrs. Gonzales with her son Anthony Gonzales and nieces Lauren Gonzales and Nicole Gonzales.

It's all smiles for the Mumaughs with their niece Sandy Laux and nephew Robbie Laux.



Cafeteria assistant Carol Chappell and her son Eric share a lot of bulldog spirit.



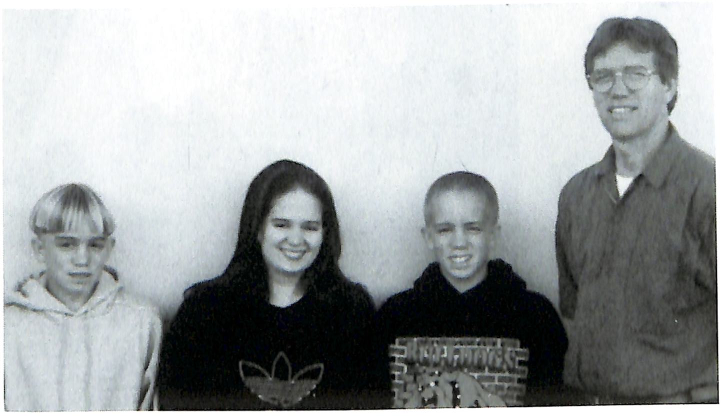
English teacher Mrs. Checchi and her son Jimmy are picture perfect.

Girls Rule! Spanish teacher Mrs. Chmieleski and her two daughters, Jenny and Annie flash their pearly whites.

Stand out athlete Jimmy Motta and his mom, school secretary Mrs. Janet Motta.

It's a family affair for Coach and History teacher Mr. Baker and his two sons Jeff and Mike.

Look at these sets of beautiful eyes on Spanish teacher Mrs. Fernandez and her son Oliver!

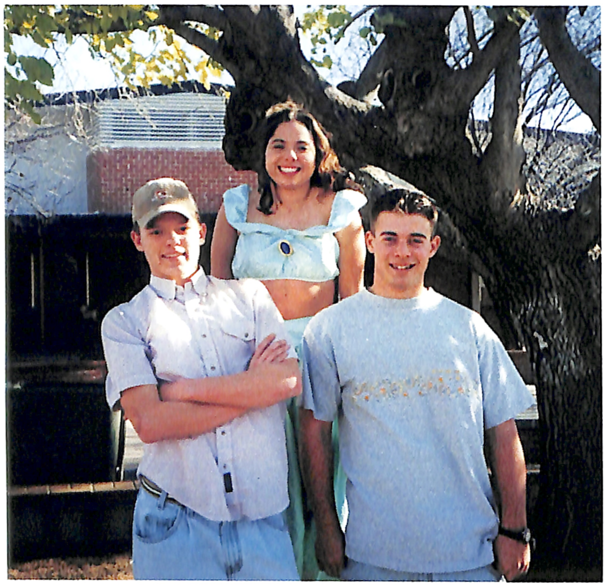


Auto shop teacher Mr. Wilson and his son Michael, daughter Stephanie and son Brian.

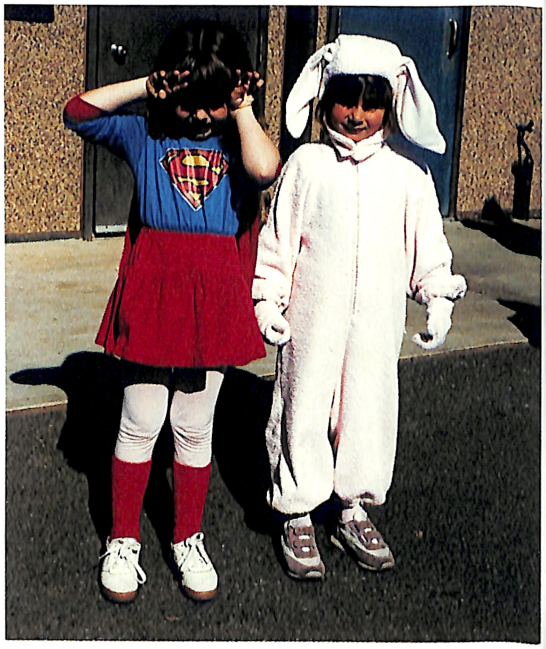
Spanish teacher Mrs. Vicondoa and freshman daughter Vanessa make time during the school day to pose for a mother-daughter picture.

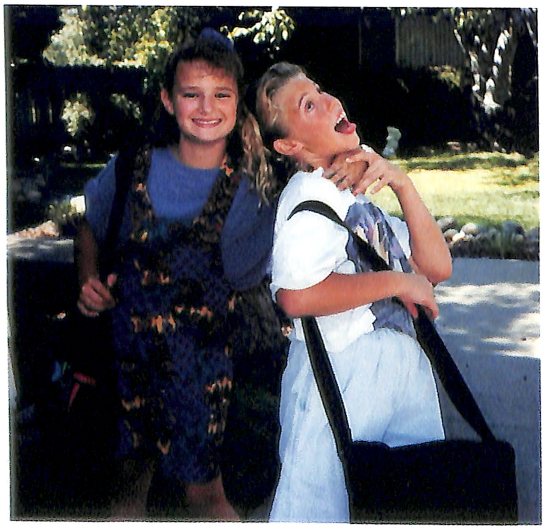
School nurse Mrs. Stoltz and daughter Elizabeth could pass for sisters.

That Was Then...



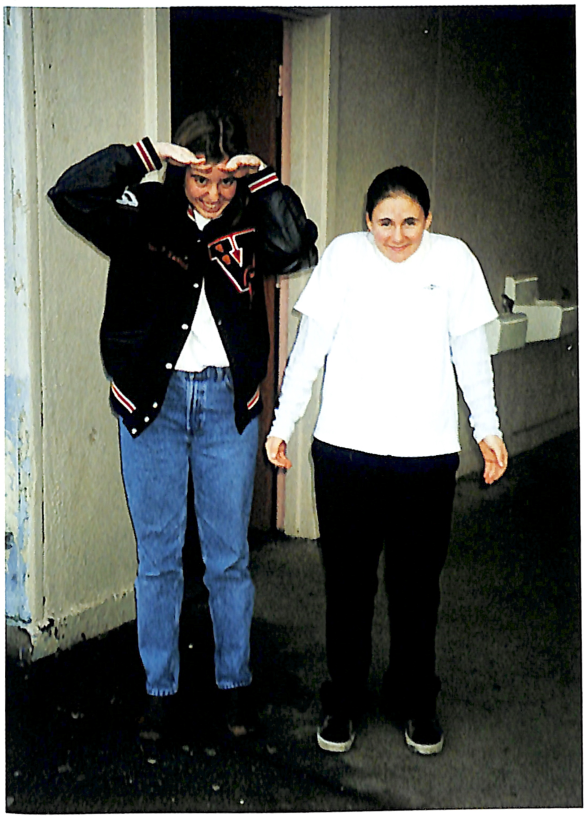
David Mickelson and Kris Roth prove that even as young boys, they were the ladies' men they are today.



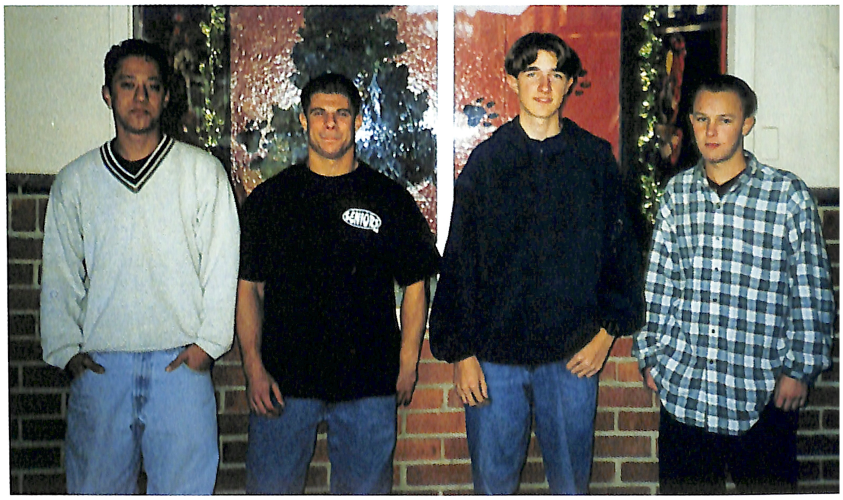


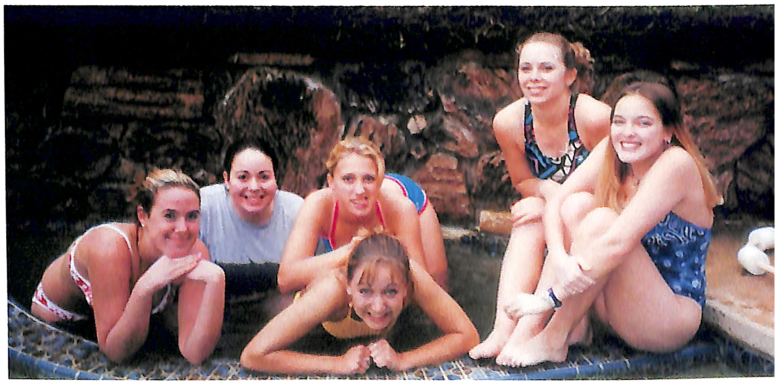
Joanna Trambley can still be found choking Christen Krogh in the halls of Vaca High.

Ryan Carter, Jimmy Motta, Mike Henry and Mikhail Papin eagerly await school's beginning each morning, just as they did in second grade at Alamo School.



Superman Sarah Lockhart and Lil' Bunny Foo Foo Kristi Kraft had just as much character then as they do now.





Kilen Gilpin, Allison Rose, Lauren Gonzales, Kelly Sutton, Pamela Kaminski and Kristen Thompson relax in the spa after a long week of school.

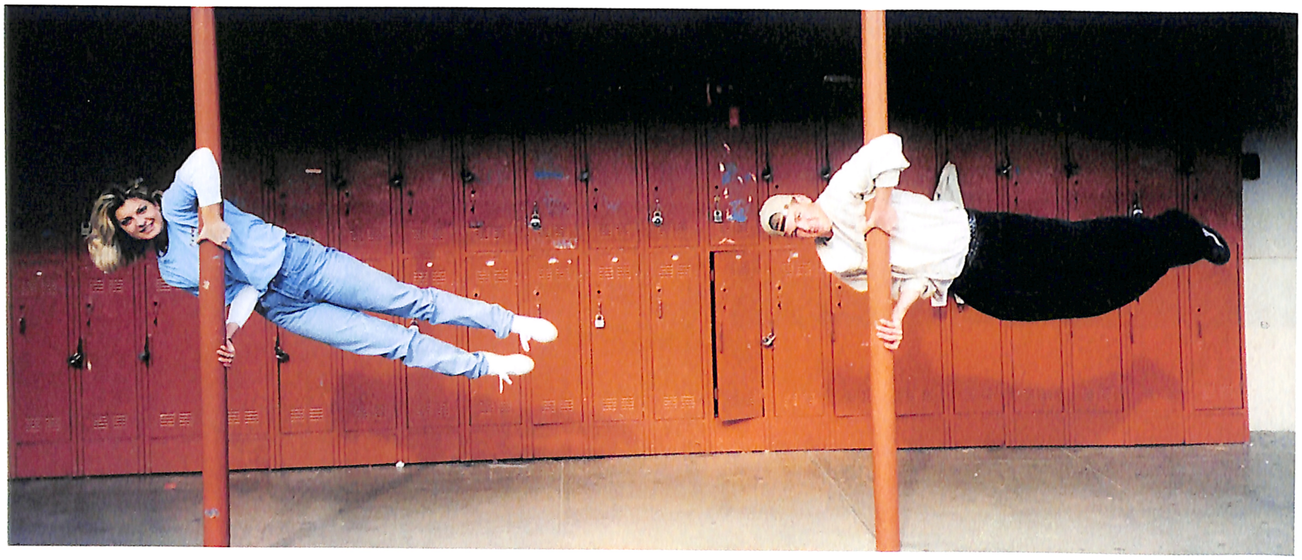
Ryan Ritchie and Landry Yoder flex their muscles and show that they are definitely more muscular now.

Aimee Vigil and Gina Vieira sip on beverages together and reminisce of their days as tiny tots.

Ashley Gregorich and Brooklynn Mundy stand by each other through every graduation.

Dog Tricks

Juniors Shawnee Perkins and Matt Ellington defy the laws of gravity. Most students at Vaca have these kinds of hidden talents that make them special.



Senior Dan Brown shows off his love of danger as he juggles fire.

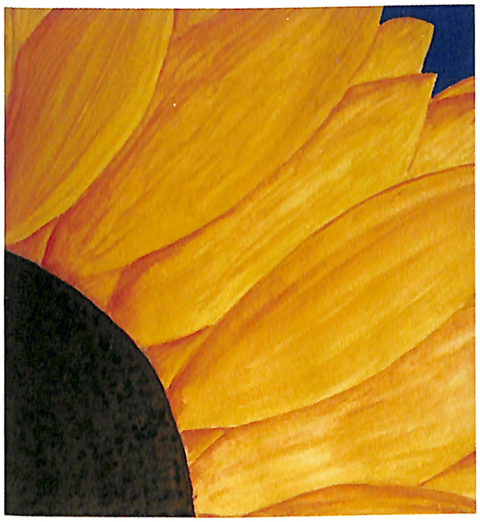
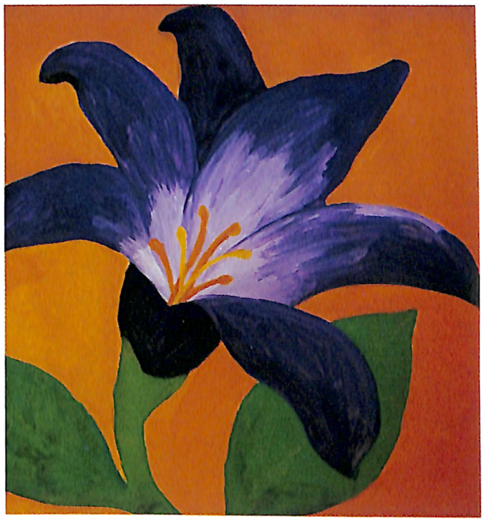
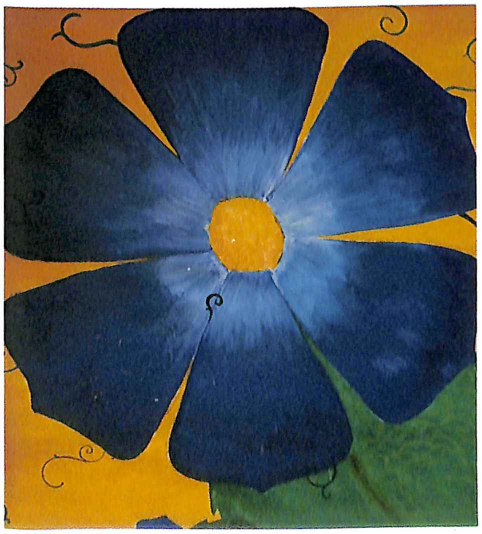
Juniors Valeri Halliday, Amy Phillippi, Manya Papin and freshman Marissa Lynn demonstrate their flexability as ballerinas during the production "Clara's Gift" with the Vacaville Ballet Company.

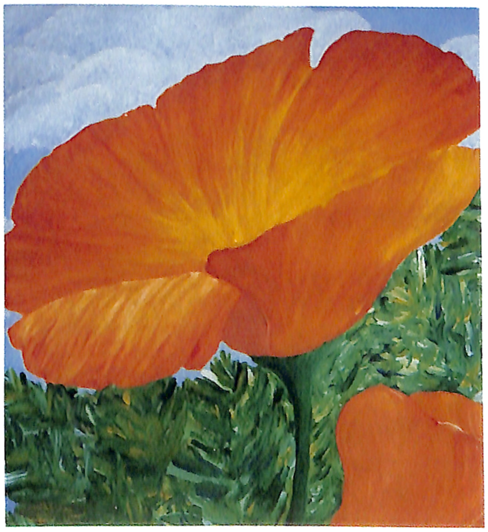
Senior Brian Hom ponders the beauty of his longboard, as he gracefully glides across the quad.

Junior Alan Grimard practices his adventurous talent scuba diving in Cozumel, Mexico.









These beautiful drawings were done by students in the art class. The sunflower-Jamie Brown, Purple Flower- Jennifer Houston, Blue Flower- Julie Dawson, and Poppy- Amber Pedersen

Just A Thought

By Ezio Lucido

In a world forever changing,
In a crowd of a million faces,
I see a love that is blinding,
Out of a million places,
I only see her, if she only saw me,
I'd die a thousand times,
And cry a thousand cries,
To not be so lonely,
If a miracle came,
My sun would finally shine,
If I only knew her name,
If only she were mine.

Just a thought, how could I be,
So foolish to believe, that she could love me.

Is it possible to be loved by beauty,
If you are not beautiful yourself,
How could she love me,
If I don't love myself,
When will others share,
The beauty that they possess,
And never get a stare,
Does that mean that I am something less,
But I realize now,
That I look how I feel,
So if she loves me somehow,
The love she'll get will be real.

Just a thought, how could I be,
So foolish to believe, that she is better than me.

As beauty is in the eye of the beholder,
I know now we are the same,
Someday I'll be her lover,
And we'll share a common flame,
I cannot imagine why,
I always had to wonder,
If I am just like the next guy,
With a mind of lightning, and a heart of thunder,
It is clearer than before,
Everyone is equal,
I can't wait to love her more and more,
So my life can begin its sequel.

Just a thought, how could I be,
So foolish to believe, that anyone is better than me.

Seniors Jessica Thompson and April Sigmund sing with pride as they show off their musical talent.

Freshman John Chicornio shows off his break-dancing skills by doing a head-spin. This move doesn't come easily and took many after-school and night practices for him to perfect.

Wes Robinson performs an alley-oop at Andrew's Park. He is one of the extremely talented roller-blader's at VHS.

10:34 p.m. After a very long school day, Scott Thompson finally gets to sleep and dreams about the next day's adventures.

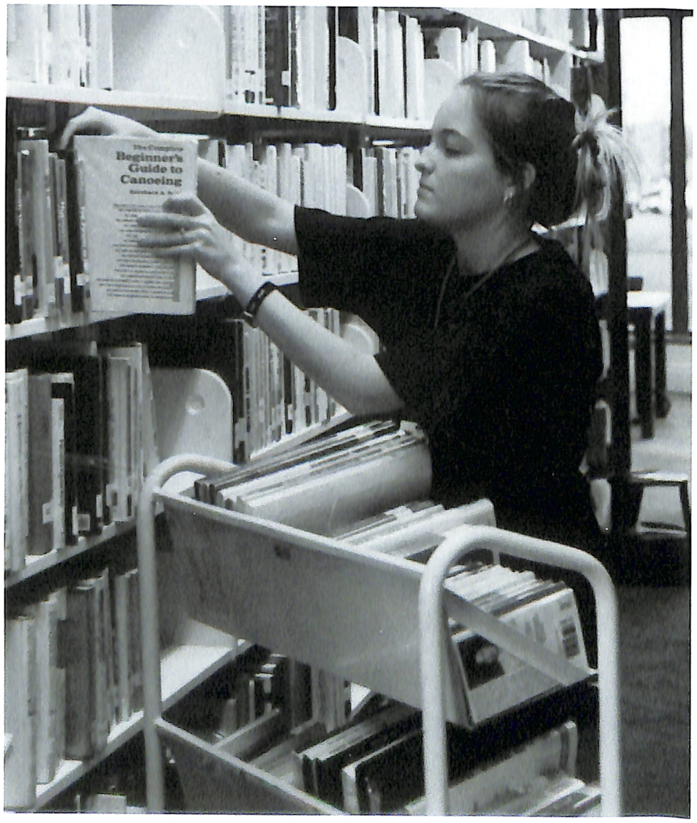
Working...

It's a late night in Vacaville, there's nothing to do. What's the solution? Go to Lyon's! Lots of good times will be found along with Junior Leah Hutting and Senior Marci Stalker as they serve up a friendly smile.

Would you like butter on your popcorn? Just say yes to these lovely ladies because that is what Seniors Lauren Gonzales, Liz Hawkins, Arika Witzel, Casie Barton, and Junior Sarah Banks will be serving up at Galaxy 8 Theatres.

Lyon's
Please

Senior Marianne Weiss and Junior Shauna Rodocker prepare for a long day at Longs Drugstore by straightening the shelves.



The Complete Beginner's Guide to Canoeing

When going to the library who do you see? Senior Kristen Thompson working because that's where she'll be.

Sophmore Ryan Bonelli and seniors Jennifer Zetah, Megan Canalita, and Tracy Louis "fall into the Gap" as they sell khakis and denim with a smile.

Say cheese! No, say salad. Fresh Choice is where Seniors Rachelle Stewart, Melissa Walker, Heather Brister, and Jamie Lynd toss up a healthy menu.

Need any toys? Go see seniors Shilah Rice and Sarah Humphrey at Toy Liquidators. They'll set you up with a great toy and ring you up with pride.

Hammer? Saw? Wrench? You name it, they have it. Just ask Amber Sirois, Lacey Palmer, Justin King, Mike Esplin, and Martin Steiner. They work hard and have fun at Pacific Hardware.

Tired of bones, Crystal Price and DeAnna Glavaz frolick at Fishermen's Warf for some famous fish.

These bulldogs were tired of walks around the block, so they went around the world to enjoy the sights of Paris.

Summer

Dog paddling can get kind of tiring, so these three: Wendy Burkhart, Shelly Whitley, and Marci Stalker don't mind taking a lift.

Flying high, these three bulldogs; Troy Moore, Shane Clark and Lacey Collins enjoy the last of their summer vaction at Great America.

How does spending two weeks on the beautiful beaches of Hawaii with the person of your dreams sound? Love birds Katy Padilla and Joseph Hunter did just that, as they spent their summer days together on the Hawaiian Islands.

Relaxing in the summer sun these senior bulldogs know what it takes to make people pant.

Go Dog Go!

"The top is down all over town, and let it be known I got it all on my own." Leah Hutting

"During the summertime it's fun to drive my jeep with the top off in the sun." Adam Mills

"Blue sky and clouds everywhere. When I get in my car the sense of fun is in the air." Adam Multsberger

Go Dog Go! To some students style is all about the car they drive. They're the lucky ones who receive their shining cars the day they turn sixteen. Then there are the hardworkers who are either working to pay for their cars or have diligently restored them. These students can be seen cruising the V.H.S parking lot; smiling and honking, full of pride for their set of wheels.

Roses are red, violets are blue; Troy Moore's truck is green, too bad it's not for you.

"I B Wold." Ryan Wold "It's sporty, it's fun, it's my baby." April Sigman

"I was reaching to lean on a pole, but instead I missed it and fell to the ground. When I got up, everyone was looking at me and laughing, including the girl that I liked."

-Tony Sacca

"One time when I was little, I was walking along on the street with my hands in my pockets, singing "Hut-2-3-4", the next thing I knew, I fell flat on my face. To this day, I have a big scar on my nose."

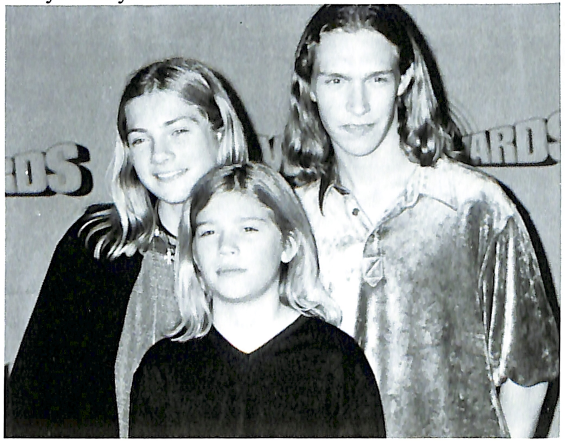
Class of 2001

Year in Review

•Despite comparisons with earlier groups like Menudo and New Kids on the Block, the Spice Girls have jumped into superstardom, grabbing the adoration that comes with overnight worldwide fame. With only one album to their credit, the five young women took the world by storm with their saucy antics and innumerable shouts of "Girl Power." The five stars go by the names Geri, Mel B, Emma, Victoria, and Mel C. They got together in 1994 and cut their first single a year later. Their album "Spice" hit the charts in early 1997 and stayed all year.

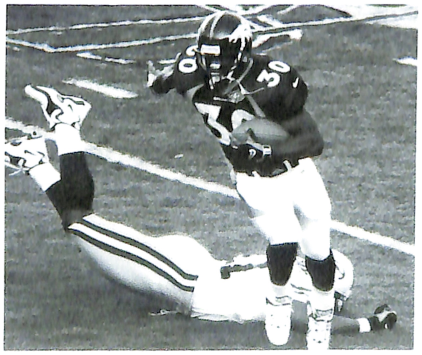
•The WNBA—Women's National Basketball Association—completed its inaugural season with the Houston Comets defeating the New York Liberty for the championship. As the season came to a close, the WNBA announced that the eight-team league would grow to 10 teams in 1998. If it all works out, the Comets will jump to the Western Conference with Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento and Utah. The new teams, Detroit and Washington, D.C., will join the East with Charlotte, Cleveland and New York.



•How did a trio of adolescent boys from America's heartland manage to hit stardom in the music world? By being young, cute, blonde and happy, the brothers Hanson became the newest kids on the pop charts. The band's infectious single "MMMBop" and their album "Middle of Nowhere" flooded the airwaves around the world. Isaac (16), Taylor (14) and Zac (11) grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma. But success didn't come overnight. The youngsters dealt with their share of rejection slips before they were discovered in 1996 at the Kansas State Fair.

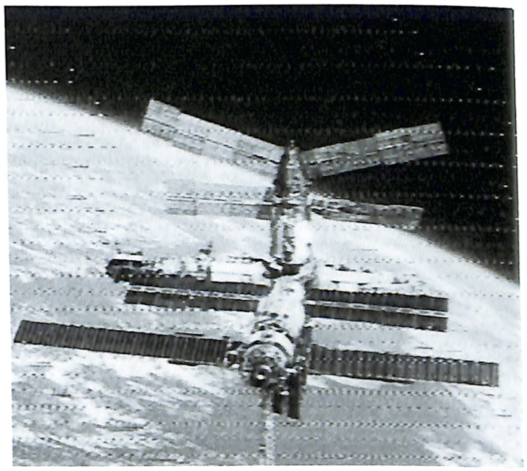
•Country star Tim McGraw, whose last two albums— "Not a Moment Too Soon" and "All I Want"—sold a combined 7 million copies, built his career on a heartbreak ballad. In the two years since "All I Want" hit the charts, McGraw became a millionaire, married country music's Faith Hill, had a daughter and gained respect as a producer. His fourth album, "Everywhere," reflects these changes in his life. The hit album chronicles a man in transition.

•"Tidal" is 10 timeless songs. This golden album by Fiona Apple spent more than a year on Billboard's best-selling chart. "My album is called 'Tidal' because all this success has hit me like a tidal wave, but also because tidal refers to ebbing and flowing and that's really what life is, a constant ebb and flow." Fiona cut a demo tape while she was in Los Angeles to spend time with her father and to finish high school. Back home in New York, one of the demos fell into the hands of a friend who works for a music industry executive. Fiona's friend gave the three-song demo to the executive who then played it for producer Andrew Slater. The rest is history.



•In one of the most competitive games in Super Bowl history, John Elway and Terrell Davis led the Denver Broncos to a 31-24 upset of the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XXXII. The Broncos' first National Football League ended the American conference's 13-year losing streak in the Super Bowl.

•When Senior April Sigman moved here from Tennessee she was no stranger to the singing world. April recalls her first major performance,"I was six years old and I sang the National Anthem for an Air Force audience of about 5,000 people." During the past eleven years April Sigman has accumulated many singing titles. She has done a number of musicals such as "West Side Story," and "Oliver." Since entering high school April has turned her voice to the solo spotlight. She won two Tennessee State titles in both her freshman and sophomore year. Moving to Vacaville as a junior her musical talent became more well known. "Last May while I was singing my first country performance for the City of Vacaville, a man came up to me and gave me his card." This is what started the last seven months of her newly welcomed country singing career. Her road to success has not been short or without hard work. "I had to compete at district and state levels to qualify for nationals. After easily winning at these levels, I went to Vegas." During her week long stay in Las Vegas April competed for Female Vocalist and Female Entertainer of the Year, with 46 other states. "There was no 21 and under division, so I had to compete with all these old people who had already sang at the Grand Ol Opry, and who had already cut C.D.'s. I was a little nervous." April sang two songs in each category. After easily winning Female Vocalist of the year, she had to put on her dancing shoes for Female Entertainer of the Year. Once again she had no problem pulling off a win. April will soon travel to Texas where she will experience an all expense paid trip to record her first album. This is only her first step in her quest for success. Only time will tell what degree of success she will rise to. Just remember her name, April Sigman, and where it all started, Vaca High. "Vaca High is the Bomb!"



•Britain and the world bid farewell to Diana, Princess of Wales, on a sparkling September morning with a grand tribute rich in pageantry. Since her death in a car crash in Paris a week before, the country had witnessed an astonishing outpouring of grief that forced a repentant monachary to join in the kind of full celebration of Diana's life the millions of people who flooded into London demanded. Her sons William, 15, Harry, 12, stood in attendance, joined by their father, Prince Charles, and her brother, Earl Spencer, as her body was taken into Westminster Abby. Millions packed the city for the funeral of Diana. It was a crowd unmatched since the end of World War I. More than a million bouquets by official count were stacked outside the royal palace. (left)

•The first component of the Mir space station was launched in 1986. And except for two brief gaps, the space station has been manned continuously ever since. It has made more than 60,000 trips around Earth. In 1994 the U.S. and Russia agreed to conduct joint missions aboard the station. A docking module was attached to Mir, allowing American space shuttles to link up with the Russian station. The main Mir module—which provides living quarters for up to six people has been orbiting for nearly 12 years, which is seven years longer than planned. These joint U.S.-Russian missions are the first phase of a program to build an International Space station. (above)

•The roving vehicle Sojourner, the first mobile explorer to land on another planet, landed on Mars in 1997 and gathered soil and rock. Overcoming communications trouble and other setbacks, the Sojourner left the Mars Pathfinder landing craft. The robotic rover's six metal wheels rolled slowly down a ramp and came to a stop on the surface. The Sojourner, which was about the size of a microwave oven, began crawling around the surface of Mars, transmitting floods of information to scientists back on Earth.

•Mother Teresa was among the most well-known and highly respected women in the world in the later half of the twentieth century. In 1948 she founded a religious order of Roman Catholic nuns in Calcutta, India, called the Missionaries of Charity. Through this order, she dedicated her life to helping the poor, the sick and the dying around the world, particularly the ones in India. Her selfless work with the needy brought her much acclaim and many awards, including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979. She died at the age of 87 on September 5, 1997 of heart failure at her convent in Calcutta. (right)

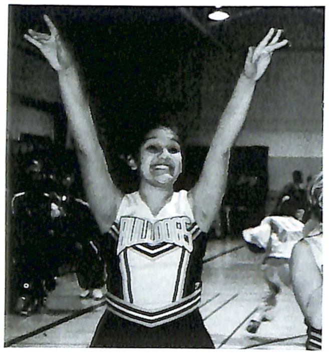
The brawn of the stunt team; Mike Evers, Shane Clark, Troy Moore and Ryan Carter. One could say that these guys have the best job in the world.

Elizabeth Moss and Trisha Koch executed each move with precision and synchronization.



Is that Mary Katherine Gallagher from Saturday Night Live? No, it's junior Melissa Perez!

Senior Alexandra Jarlson cheers flawlessly with an expression on her face which makes you smile.

Seniors Ryan Carter and Marchelle Bradanini switch roles for a while.

Football

"Cheerleading has taught me to accept people for who they are and respect their opinions." -Erin Williams

"From cheerleading, I have gained maturity and the ability to work well with others, aside of our differences." -Rachel Dutra

Sophomores Rachel Dutra, Jenny Damman, and Erin Willians lift Toccorra Gates high up into the air in a stunt at cheerleading camp.

Basketball

"Cheerleading has made me both a stronger leader and listener. Through communication and compromising, anything is possible." -Jennifer Daveris

"Cheerleading has brought me to a higher level of respect for people's opinions." -Toccarra Gates Seniors Jenny Zetah, Amber Sirois, and Jamie Lynd strike a pose during a football routine.

The drill team works hard, but still look cute.

Juniors vs. Seniors

Senior Natalie Tiedemann makes her way past junior Gaby Hawkins, in one of the many successful senior plays. (right)

Junior cheerleader, Brendin Cronin, shows it takes a lot of grit to get the crowd entertained.

Unlike the juniors, the senior routine was planned, and stylin'.

Aimee Vigil was lookin' wicked on the field. She was out for revenge. (above)

And she could go all the way!

These juniors look rough and ready, too bad they couldn't come away with a victory.

If the seniors won the game, why do they look so upset? (left) Senior head coach Joseph Hunter escorts Marchelle Bradanini to the sidelines for a quick breather. (right)

Katie McCoulf and Gina Vieira are really just friends.

It was a nice effort, but there was no way of getting past defensive guard Tammi Patrick.

"Everybody just run!"

MR. OCTOBER

Ezio Lucido, "Mr. Funnyman" grins modestly after a job well done.

The handsome contestants strike a pose after an entertaining performance of "Men In Black."

Mr. Superstar, Justin Griffin, and Mr. First Runner-up, Dave Rich, smile ecstatically after receiving their awards.

Not only did the pom squad organize and present the third annual Mr. October event, they also entertained the audience with a few of their short routines.

Dave Rich (pictured here with Luke Tamburello, Brian Sweeney, and Ezio Lucido) commented, "It was the only time I got to dance with nine other half-naked guys!"

Right-Robert Sanchez, Nick Butler, Luke Tamburello, Billy Nelson, Ezio Lucido, Jimmy Motta, Justin Griffin, Dave Rich, Ryan Carter, and Brian Sweeney, were the brave contestants in the pageant.

Jimmy Motta, the new 1997 Mr. October, stands proudly after receiving his title.

Luke Tamburello is head-over-heels for winning the Mr. Bulldog competition. Suffering from a bloody gash to the palm, he still manages to engage in his acrobatic maneuvers.

Mr. Fitzpatrick, the 1997 Mr. Bulldog, displays his bulldog pride. "It was the ultimate feeling of excitement!" he exclaimed after being crowned.

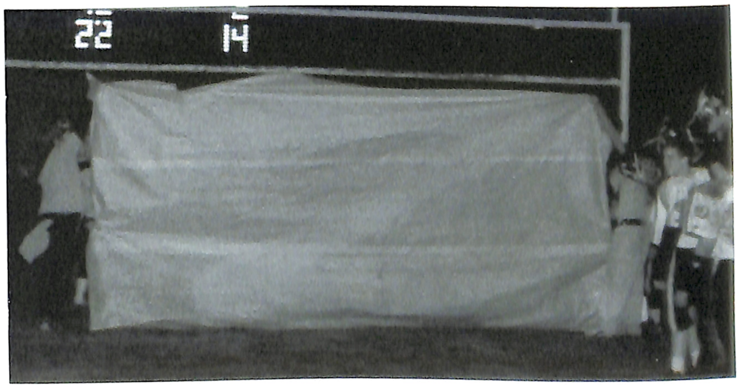
Even though "Z" will be with us still as Head Advisor, there will be a part on the football field with a vacancy that no one could be even remotely close to filling. "Z" will be a man considerably missed in the football department.
This man of compassion, is a man we might see as a father figure or coach. Whether we hear him yelling at us to try harder, or a man that we know will be able to listen when we have something to say. He is a man of great ingegrity and will be in all of our hearts.



He was our father he was our friend
we all thought it would never end
He stood by us through thick and thin
Knowing in his heart we could always win
Coach "Z" you never beat around the bush and sometimes you threatened to kick me in my tush
You made me laugh and sometimes cry
You made me believe you gotta fight till ya die
You and the team have a place in my heart and with that we shall never part although it's time for us to leave
I'll never forget this year's team
You mean so much to me coach "Z"
and man I hate to see you leave.

In Memory of

Mrs. Grace Powell

On Wednesday October 22, 1997 hundreds of people gathered to pay their respects to Grace Powell in the Vacaville High School Gymnasium. Simple good-byes along with emotional speeches filled the audience with nostalgic smiles. The ceremony took up a good part of the afternoon as family, friends, and community members remembered a truly magnificent woman.

Grace B. Powell was principal of Vacaville High School from 1979 to 1989. She was a student at Vacaville High School. After graduating from U.C. Berkeley she returned to serve as a counselor, Dean of Students and Principal. For those who knew her she will always be remembered as a wonderful and intelligent lady. If you didn't have the good fortune to know her, just imagine your favorite teacher and your favorite boss all rolled into one. Grace Powell was all of these things.

Mrs. Powell's unique and positive influence on Vaca High is still felt by the students this year and will continue to be by many students in the years to come.

Spreading The News

These Bark staff members work diligently to make our newspaper full of interesting stories.

Bark advisor Mr. Murphy and sports editor Danny Bernardini growl viciously to let out deadline frustrations.

Roxanne Dominguez reads her story out loud to fellow classmate Sean Fanopoulos to make sure there are no errors.

Horsin' Around

These F.F.A. members show that the F.F.A. Club can be a barrel of fun.

Talented F.F.A. members, Jeremy Rickerson and Lisa Nixon, show off their horseback riding skills.

During Homecoming Week, F.F.A. members display their school pride while riding on their float.

Tammi Patrick

Tam,

I knew you would be a doctor when you broke your arm. Don't forget about all the support I gave you when you hit it big. We're proud of you. You're graduating!

Love always,

Dad, Betsy & Carly

Tammi Lynn,

Congratulations!! The future is yours. Enjoy every minute and make the best of it. We only hope the world can handle you. Good luck.

Love,

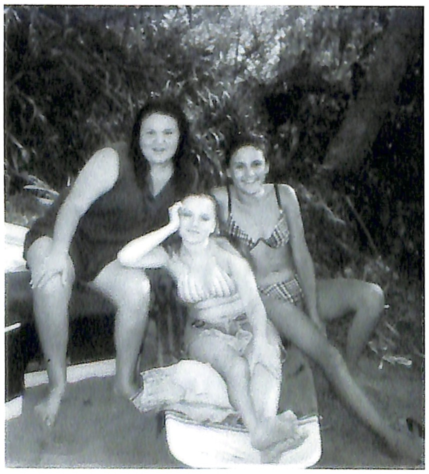
Mom, Bob, Rebecca & Myles Lee

Tammi,

Life is precious & so are you. Don't ever forget it.

All my love,

Aunt Louise



Ashley Gregorich

Ashley,

You have grown beautifully and gracefully into a young adult. You have learned and grown from your mistakes and your accomplishments have filled us with love and pride. Our hope for your future is a life filled with happiness and success, but most of all love.

We Love You,
Mom, Dad, Joey and Katie

Jamie Lynd

Dream your world of dreams. Work hard at what you like to do. Dreams have a way of becoming reality. We love you beyond all words. So go forth - many treasures await you on your journey of life. You have been one of ours.

Love,
Dad, Mom & Tracy

Joseph Randy Andrew Williams-Gomez

Dearest Andy,
I always strove to be like you.
You taught me about childhood, adulthood, and life.
When thoughts of you whisper across my mind, I hear, and have witnessed
Integrity
Kindness
Honesty
You're not afraid to be too gentle and not afraid to be too strong.

A Gentlemen

Love,
Mom

Lacey Palmer

Tony Branco

First steps, first bike, first car,
Many "firsts" to take you far.
Away you go, always it seems,
passing through our lives,
exceeding our dreams.
Your firsts have been a source of pride
for all of us.
Now, enjoy the ride!!
Congratulations Senior!

All our love,
Mom,
Tom, Danny

Shane Clark

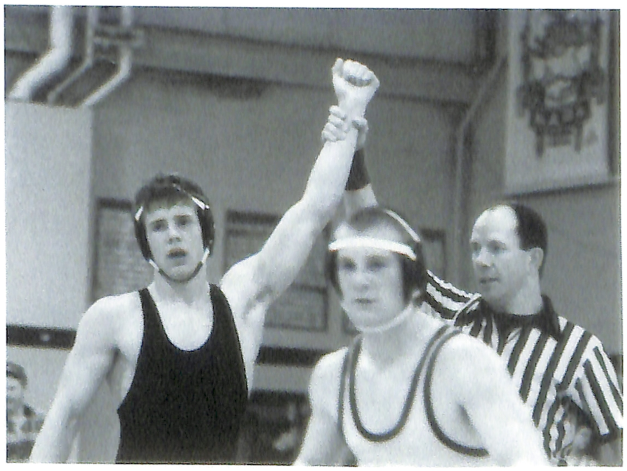
In many ways we're proud of you-
You've come a long, long way.
The growth in your abilities
Has struck us day by day.

Some contests are for glory,
Putting trophies on the shelf.
Others are the one we wage
For bettering the shelf.

It's not the stakes that count, but rather
How we sense our movement;
And you are on a steady course
Of rapid self-improvement.

The progress you are showing
Makes us want to say aloud:
We're happy where you're going,
And you make us very proud.

Love,
Mom and Dad



Tim Duncan

Tim,

Doing it "your way" is how you came into this world, that is how you continue today. You are an independent and self-assured young man and we could not be prouder. Work for what you believe in and strive for your goals You are one of a kind!

With love and pride,

Dad, Mom and Kristi

Amber Sirois

Amber,

You have been a wonderful gift from above. We have enjoyed watching and helping you grow into the mature, intelligent, outgoing young women you have became. It is time for us to let you reach for the "stars" and pursue your dreams. We will always support and love you.

Love,

Mom, Dad and Jeremy

Casie Barton

First steps,

Ryan,

As you begin this next stage in life's journey, remember to take that first step. The distance may seem overwhelming at first, but we are all on a path. You must always continue learning and growing. So it is not the destinations you seek, but the joy of the journey.

"It doesn't happen all at once....... you become." Quote by Margery Williams

You have begun your journey wonderfully. Remember to trust in your judgement based on your values and beliefs. You are a joy in our life and we love you very much. We are proud to call you son and brother.

As you journey on in life, remember—
Don't ever try to understand everything—some things just never make sense.
Don't ever feel threatened by the future—
take one day at a time.
Don't forget that you can achieve so many of the things you can imagine.
Don't ever stop believing,
Don't ever stop dreaming your dreams.
Most importantly, don't ever doubt the love

Melissa Walker

Melissa,

We've watched you grow from a cute, bubbly baby, to an aspiring baseball star, to a telephone princess; from pigtails and dress up to a drill team performer, and finally to a beautiful, loving, talented young woman. We are so proud of all you've done and who you've become. We wish for you God's Love and Blessings and all the best that life has to offer — love, friends, happiness, and success.

We love you,

Mom and Dad

Aimee Vigil

Aimee,

Wow! You made it. It seems like just yesterday you were this little girl running into Ms. Alexander's kindergarten classroom. So happy and confident. Never afraid.

Throughout the years many things have happened, good and bad, but still the spirit of this confident little girl prevails.

We're very proud of your accomplishments, and how for years you have given up your summers for the love of softball. It takes a strong person to do that. Remember to use your talents to the fullest. We're rooting for you.

We love you very much,

Walking down the country road, holding hands is how we began. Being best friends is our main success. To this day you make me laugh when I want to cry, when ever I want to quit you give me a reason to try. During the summer nights, when we would lay under the stars I would wish on the brightest star, that we would stay together for ever. Deep in my soul, I know I want you until the end of time, and I'm hoping that you'll always and forever be mine.

Love Always,
Elaine

God blessed us with six bundles of joy, all with special interests. we have watched you grow into a fine young man. Your honesty and compassion will take you far. I don't know where the years went, but certainly have a full heart of memories. Your goals are high as are you expectations. Reach for the stars son, we know you will make it.

We Love you,

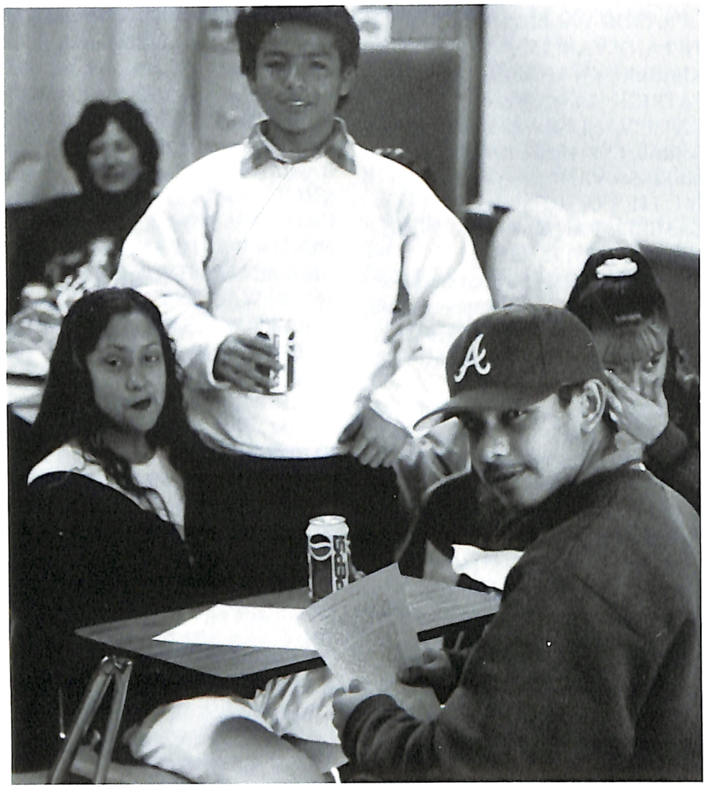
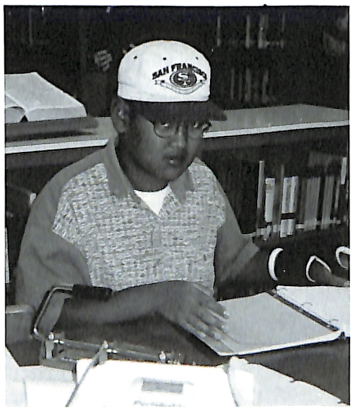
Now Leaving

Well, another year is over and smiles and tears can be seen throughout the faces of students. It can be heard, a sad "goodbye" or an enthusiastic "see ya next year" as one strolls down the halls of Vaca High. There is so much one can miss about their high school years, from exciting games to lunch time with friends, displayed left by Paulina Barajas, Hugo Rodriguez, Vincent Zavala and Judith Manriques. We cherish it, make the most of it, and move on, holding in our hearts those treasured moments.





Robert Delgado gets in as much studying as he can before his day begins.(above)

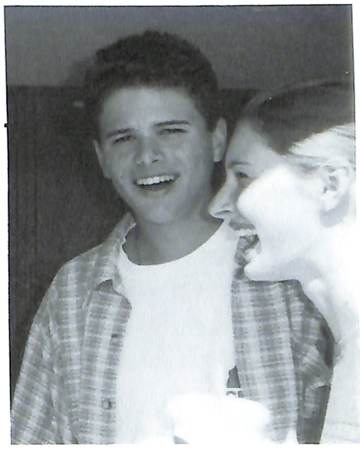
Daniel Wesp, Erin Chun, Geordie Stock, and Kevin Chavez are dressed very snazzy for their performance.

These freshmen use their time wisely as they spread some gossip during passing period.

Nikki Lynn and James Erickson ran for the border as they sit in the quad munching on Taco Bell.

Good times are here! At least that is what these juniors are thinking as they huddle together in chemistry class.

Amanda Norman can be found "hanging out" in the halls during passing period.



Russ Martellaro and Amber Sirois go into hysterics over that good old chicken crossing the road joke.

This group of guys return to their classes after a satisfying lunch.

Melanie Kauffeld displays one of the many hazards among the halls of Vaca High.

Bulldog Territory

Can somebody please pinch me? I can't believe that it is finally over. The '97-'98 yearbook staff put in a considerable amount of time, effort and creativity. I'm very proud of you all! I hope that everyone is happy with the dog theme because if this isn't enough dog for you, then I don't know what is! I would like to begin my mushy farewells and thank yous with Liz Erwin- Being co-editor with you was a delightful experience. I know that we are two very busy people but we managed to stick things through and produce a successful book. I wish you plenty of luck next year. Casie Barton- Casie B.! Delfina! Good job on the student life section. I'm going to miss the heck out of you next year, but we have this summer to make even more wonderful memories than we have. I love you. Morp lives on! Marchelle Bradanini- You did a great job as spirit section editor. I wish you much luck with all of your theatrical talent. Megan Caygill- Hey little sis! I think that you did a very good job for your first year on staff. The underclass and faculty was a mondo job to take on and you kept on your toes. I love you very much and am always here for you. Jenny Damman- Well, when you weren't stinking up the classroom with your burritos (J.K.) you did a great job on staff! Tell Naomi thanks for all of her help. Aissa Duey- You have been an awesome staff member. You have a lot of artistic talent. Don't waste it. DeAnna Glavaz- I'm very proud of the way you handled the sports section. You were always organized and on top of things despite catastrophes. You have a beautiful smile. Don't ever let it fade. Leslie Harper- Thank you for bringing your great sense of humor on to staff. I have really enjoyed getting to know you better and hope to keep in touch after high school. Morp rules! Denise Horne- I really admire your eccentricity. Thank you for bringing it to staff. Victoria Horton- Thanks for all the effort you put in to the book. I will always love that picture of you eating pizza. Pamela Kaminki- He! He! Your sense of humor and your wonderful organizational skills have made you a great club section editor. I will never forget running up and down the hill with you at camp and all of the other hysterical "good times" we have had together. It's like. . . belly dancers rule (so does morp)! I love you. Trisha Koch- My sunshine! I enjoyed singing songs to you! You did a good job on the faculty and underclass. Much luck next year. Tracy Louis- What can I say besides good job and I absolutely adore your personality. Hope that we keep in touch after high school. See you at morp. David McKenzie- Even though you weren't here most of the year, you contributed some great photos and a fun attitude. Liz Moss- It was fun having you on staff. You put in a lot of effort and it was appreciated. You are an awesome cheerleader. Keep it up! Go morp! Araceli Noriega- Hey smelly! I was so happy when you got on staff because you are such a hard worker. Thank you so much for giving everything you do 100%. Lauren Osborn- You are and have always been a great asset to the staff with all of your computer nerd knowledge. (J.K.) Good luck next year and don't stress. Tammi Patrick- I am so impressed with the way the senior section turned out, you senior section editor you! I have enjoyed knowing you so much. You are very special! Amy Sheehan- Good job on the index. I hope that it didn't give you too many wrinkles! Remember that I am always here if you need a hug! Carly Sheehan- You were an awesome copy editor and saved Liz and I a lot of time. You are appreciated. Khala Smith- Thank you for putting in after school time towards your work. Good luck and be good! Luke Tamborello- Your flirtations have always put me in awe. Let me ask you this: Have you ever thought about running for President? Ooooh! (Sorry, I just had to get a Clinton joke in somewhere.) Kristen Thompson- Thank you for your hard work and dedication towards the clubs section. You have a warm heart and I admire you as a person. Nonanna Trambley- You should be very proud of the work you did as co-student life editor. I will never forget our experiences together in Europe. Thank you for always being there. I love you. Morp is cool! Jimma Trivitt- You put in a lot of hard work on the ads section. Quit that habit okay!? (You know what I am talking about.) Good luck next year. Bernie White- Your photography contributed greatly to the book. Thanks for being such a great asset. And finally Ms. Anthony- First of all, I would like to compliment you on your first entire year as advisor. Secondly, thank you for being an inspiration in many aspects of my life from art to lessons in life. Good luck in the future! With that said, I'm outta here! Bye.

This year has been an interesting experience, to say the least. I have learned more about leadership in the past few months than I have in the rest of my life. I may not have always appreciated the responsibilities but I appreciate what I have gained from them. Hopefully, everything I have learned this year will help me with next year's Ulatis.

A have a huge list of thanks so I better start now. Samantha- thanks for sharing editorial duties with me, I would have been so lost with out the support and someone else to share the blame for layouts and deadlines. Ms. Anthony- thanks for relieving all the anxiety I felt about this position and reassuring all my fears. Tammi- you have been a lifesaver a thousand times over. The senior section looks wonderful and the signatures were a great idea. Thanks for helping everyone with everything and taking more on then you ever needed to. DeAnna- you always made sure the sports were ready and really increased the JV and freshmen coverage. You have always been a sweetie and I'll miss you a lot. Bernie, Luke and David- being in a class of girls may have sounded good, but I'm sure you realized a room full of angry females is a scary place. Jimma- my sweet little sophomore, everyone on staff should thank you for saving them with your senior ad skills. Thanks for getting everything done so fast. Trisha and Megan- the who is this? page in the faculty section was a great idea and so were the questions for the underclass section. Casie and Joanna- you guys did a fantastic job with student life, especially since you had to do most of it yourself. Marchelle- thank you for taking on the spirit section. You did a really good job of getting people to give you pictures. Jenny and Naomi- all of Jenny's spreads turned out great thanks to the two of you. Amy- the index is a huge job, thank you for taking it on again. I'll miss you next year. Aissa- I will always remember your attentiveness at camp. Liz and Leslie- you made many great spreads together. Thank you for all your effort. Denise- thank you for helping Jimma and me out with receipts. Carly- thank you for being my friend! Also, you did a great job of helping out everywhere. Victoria- all your extra effort outside of class helped a lot. Pam and Kristen- the club section is definitely new and improved! You guys did a marvelous job. Tracy- thank you for all the work you put into your spreads! It really shows. Khala- thanks for being there for us. Araceli- you are fantastic! All your help and effort really shows, and I am so super glad that you were on staff. And Lauren, what can I say? You were lazy, and sat behind the computer all day. But I thank you for that, and next year we will be awesome. Thank you to all my loved ones for putting up with my stressed out self this year.

Thank you to everyone who helped with the '98 Ulatis!
